

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT NETWORKS

Objectives

- Facilitate Implementation of Multilateral Environmental Agreements (MEAs) through:
 - Enabling programs in developing countries
 - Experience exchange mechanism
- Promote the concepts & practice of Sustainable Development through:
 - Access to information & knowledge sources
 - Effective deployment of environmental friendly technologies and policies

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT NETWORKS

Information Clearinghouse: Electronic Networks

- OzonAction under Montreal Protocol
- Cleaner Production

Training: People Networks

- Networks of National Ozone Units in 100 developing countries
- Network of National Cleaner Production Centres in more than 40 countries

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT NETWORKS

USING INTERNET TECHNOLOGIES MANAGING KNOWLEDGE THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

- OzonAction Web Site
 - Electronic Documentation Centre, General Information, News Updates, Links
- OASIS CD-ROM
 - Full-text Publications, General Information, Data Collection Forms, Meeting Reports, Library Database, Links
 - Updated yearly
- E-mail Discussion and Assessment Forums
 - Issue-specific to promote dialogue among stakeholders world-wide
 - Expert-driven and Experience driven evaluation and assessment forum
- Electronic News Updates
 - Provide current news on developments on particular issues
 - Two updates currently available via e-mail and fax

KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT NETWORKS

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

- Continue to develop current knowledge management networks, through OzonAction web-site, OASIS CD-ROM, ICPIC CD-ROM
- Develop new issue-specific discussion forums based on needs of National Ozone Unit and National Cleaner Production Centres
- Develop remote training through web and CD-ROM based formats
- Continue to evaluate new information technologies and adopt those that best complement current activities